

I agree that there should be one box just like one telephone to call different servers (VRS companies). Therefore, everyone will have same equal access quality for all people. Thank you for your time. Have a nice day!